VALUABLE

Land for Sale!

WAKE COUNTY, }
IN THE PROBATE COURT. }

A. L. Woodall, Adm'r., of A. P. Woodall, Dec'd., vs. G. W. Woodall and others.

By virtue of a decree, made in the above entitled cause, on the 17th day of Nov., 1870, I will expose to public sale, at the Court House door, in the city of Raleigh, on the following tracts of land, belonging to the estate of the late Capt. A. P. Woodall, viz:

Saturday, the 24th of Dec., 1870,

One tract, containing 165 acres, or thereabouts, lying on Walnut Creek, near the city of Raleigh, adjoining the lands of W. N. Andrews, B. B. Bell, John S. Bryan, dec'd., and others.

This tract contains land of excellent quality, and has upon it a good dwelling house, all necessary out houses, and good water.

Also another tract, containing about 162 acres in St. Mark's Township, eleven miles north of Raleigh, adjoining the lands of Wm Mabry, John Honeycutt, and Simeon Brassfield. This is a very desirable place. For any further information, apply to the undersigned. Terms made known on day of sale.

A. L. WOODALL, Adm'r,
and Commissioner.

PROF. CHANDLER of New York City, In a lecture delivered by him at Cooper Institute, March 10, 1870, said:

"It is hardly necessary to enlarge upon the terrible accidents which have resulted from the use of unsafe kerosene; you have only to read the newspapers from day to day to see them. It is stated by some that these are exaggerated; that these accidents never occur, and that you and I never had a friend burned to death; still we do have an enormous number of terrible accidents from petroleum. In the last seven months of 1869 there were fifty five kerosene accidents in New York, resulting in twenty-three deaths, eighteen serious injuries and fourteen slight ones. The total result for the year 1869, for the City of New York which I myself have cut from newspapers is fifty-two fatal accidents from dangerous kerosene, fifty seven, and six slight, in all 108 persons to my knowledge, from my own reading have been injured by kerosene in one year."

J. H. HORNER, }
R. H. GRAVES, } Associate Principals.

THIS SCHOOL which has been for the last twenty years under the exclusive charge of J. H. Horner, will henceforth be conducted under the joint supervision of the above principals, with competent assistant instructors in every department.

The course of study has been extended, and boys will be thoroughly fitted for advanced classes in College, especial reference being had to the qualifications requisite to admission into the Senior classes in the University of Virginia, of Washington Lee University. The latter of which has again conferred upon the school the honor of a scholarship in that Institution.

A regular course of study in Natural Science, Commercial Science and the Modern Languages has been added to the school for those students, who, desiring to acquire only a complete business education may wish to substitute these studies for Latin and Greek.

No pains will be spared to render the instruction in the school efficient and to furnish to students the most ample facilities for thorough preparation for College or for the acquisition of a good business education; and the principals flatter themselves that their long and successful career as teachers is a sufficient guarantee that the school will be in all respects worthy the public confidence and support.

The Spring Session will open the second Monday in January.

Circulars containing terms and full particulars furnished upon, application to either of the principals.

We surrender most of our space to-day, to the Legislative reports, and to the articles of impeachment against Governor Holden, believing that our readers would be anxious to see these, rather than any other matter we could give.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

Yesterday at 11 o'clock, A. M., the House of Representatives, preceded by the Managers of Impeachment, went in a body to the Senate Chamber, and delivered to the President of the Senate articles of impeachment against the Governor.

Mr. Sparrow spoke for the House and the people on delivering the articles to the President of the Senate, who ordered the Doorkeeper to make proclamation, which was done.

Mr. London, the Assistant Clerk of the Senate, then proceeded to read the eight articles of impeachment, which occupied something over half an hour.

The reading concluded, the members of the House of Representatives returned to their Hall. The President of the Senate, Mr. Caldwell, announced that the constitution devolved other duties upon him, and therefore it would be necessary for that body to elect a presiding officer, pro tem, pending the impeachment.

The Senate then proceeded, Gen. Dargan in the Chair, to the election, when Judge Warren was elected almost unanimously, and was conducted to the Chair by Messrs. Worth and Ferebee.

The five people of Alamance and Caswell are not yet vindicated for the outrages heaped upon them. The House of Representatives has done its duty, and the Managers will present ample proof of high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

About 2 o'clock the Lieutenant Governor called on Governor Holden, at the Executive office, to know if it would be agreeable to him that he should take possession, when the Governor turned over the office to him and retired.

We give elsewhere the articles of impeachment, as they were read to the Senate.

By request of Mr. Ogden we insert the following:

RALEIGH, Tuesday, A. M.

To the Ladies of Raleigh:

Permit the Manager of the Sappho English Opera Troupe, to respectfully ask you to bring out the Little Girls and Boys to see this Wonderful Little Prodigy.

The Little Sappho is the wonder of the Old and New World, and in no city has failed to draw large houses (especially of ladies.) Nothing in the performance is indecent or immodest, but is of a class to inspire one with something noble and refined. The object of the Manager is to cater for the good people of Raleigh during the season, and trusts his efforts will be appreciated.

Very Respectfully,
R. DORSAY OGDEN,
Manager of the Theatre of Richmond, Va., of Souther Theatres.

An Absolute Safeguard.

Invalids, broken down in health and spirits by Chronic Dyspepsia, or suffering from the terrible exhaustion which follows the attacks of acute disease, the testimony of thousands who have been raised as by a miracle from a similar state of prostration by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is a sure guarantee that by the same means you too may be strengthened and restored. But to those who stand in peril of epidemics, to all who, by reason of exposure, privations, and uncongenial climate or unhealthy pursuits, may at any moment be stricken down, this paragraph is most particularly and emphatically addressed. You, who are thus situated, are proffered an absolute safeguard against the danger that menaces you. Tone and regulate the system with this harmless medicinal Stimulant and Alterative, and you will be forearmed against the maladies whose seeds float around you in the air unseen. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are not only a standard Tonic and Alterative throughout the United States, but they are accredited by the certificates of the most distinguished citizens of the Union, to the people of all other lands. In Canada, Australia and the West Indies, they are gradually taking place of all other stomachics, whether native or foreign, and as surely as truth is progressive and demonstration overthrows doubt, they will eventually supersede every other Invigorant and Restorative now employed in medicinal practice.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Dec. 19.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Norment, Senator from Robeson.

On motion of Mr. Council, the rules were suspended, and the bill for the relief of the Sheriff of Watauga county was taken up and passed its several readings.

Mr. Norment, from the Committee of Conference on per diem and milage, reported back the House Bill No. 140, on the same subject, asking the concurrence of the Senate, which was rejected by a vote of 17 to 26.

Mr. Gilmer moved that a message be sent the House asking another committee of conference, to be composed of 5 on the part of the House and 3 on the part of the Senate, on this subject.

Mr. Speed moved to indefinitely postpone the whole matter, which motion was lost by a vote of 17 to 24.

Mr. Love moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the Senate refused to concur in the report of the committe of conference, which motion was lost by a vote of 21 to 21; the President voted in the negative.

The hour for the special order having arrived, the President announced that it would be taken up.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Bill concerning a convention of the people.

Motion pending to strike out that portion of the 8th section which fixes the per diem of the delegates.

Mr. Olds obtained the floor, and spoke for one hour and forty-five minutes, in opposition to the bill, principally on the ground of its being unconstitutional and of expediency.

Mr. Lehman followed, in a short explanation as to a change in his position, which was adverse to the one he occupied several days ago, and conceded that the bill was constitutional and that the Legislature had the right to call a restricted convention, though he was opposed to the bill on the ground of expediency.

Mr. Brogden followed in opposition to the bill, he obtained the floor at 15 minutes before 1 o'clock and relinquished it at 3 1-2 o'clock.

Mr. Jones obtained the floor and said:

Mr. President, I am about to call the previous question upon the final passage of this bill; and I apologize to the Senate for not having done so at 11 o'clock as I gave notice on Saturday last I would do. I have not myself, addressed the Senate upon this bill for the reason that I believed the opinions of Senators, were long since matured upon this subject. My only solicitude has been that the minority on this floor should have the fullest opportunity to discuss the merits of a measure of so much importance to the State. I think they will admit that they have had this opportunity, and I will say for most of them that they have not abused our courtesy nor the privileges accorded them by the rules of the Senate. Some, however, of those who have last spoken seem so incapable of appreciating a courtesy and have so grossly abused both their privileges and the patience of the Senate in harangues expressly intended to consume its time, that I now call the previous question and shall not on any account withdraw the call.

The President, (Mr. Caldwell,) said, before putting the question to the Senate he desired to call their attention to Article 13, section 1, of the Constitution of the State, which reads as follows, to wit:

"No Convention of the people shall be called by the General Assembly unless by the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members of each House of the General Assembly."

The President stated that he understood that it was the purpose of the General Assembly to submit the question upon a majority vote, he was of the opinion that it required a two-third vote, but would submit the question to the Senate, and if it decided that a bare majority only was necessary, he would retire from the chair and invite some Senator to preside until the question was disposed of.

The President then submitted the question in the following form, to wit:

As many as are of the opinion that a majority can pass this bill will, when your names are called, answer in the affirmative and those of a contrary opinion will answer in the negative, and the question was decided in the affirmative. Yeas 28, nays 12.

The President retired from the Chair and invited the Senator from Beaufort (Mr. Warren) to preside.

The question being on the passage of the bill, numerous explanations of votes were given, to wit:

Mr. Cowles, in explanation of his vote, said: In the canvass, last summer, which resulted in his election, as Senator from the 35th District, he did not foresee the importance and necessity of a Convention of the people at so early a period as this bill proposed. He desired to avoid, even by implication, the semblance of recreancy to the pledges made his constituency, for this reason, he should, in exact conformity with those pledges, vote "no." But should the bill pass, he would exert his humble influence to the utmost to secure the call of the Convention, by a majority of the voters of the State. Believing a Convention of the people absolutely necessary, and the only speedy and efficient remedy for the ills which now afflict and oppress the people and the Treasury.

Mr. Currie said he occupied a similar position to that of the Senator from Yadkin, and should therefore vote no.

Mr. Gilmer said that in the campaign in August last, it was not made a question whether we ought to submit it to the people to say whether they want a Convention to amend the Constitution. It was charged by his opponents that it was the purpose of the Conservative party to call a Convention to destroy the homestead, the right of the colored men to vote, to prescribe property qualifications for voters and other terrible things. These unjust charges he denied and still denied. But the demands of the people of the State as demanded by Senators on this floor, and the constant obstacles of the present Constitution satisfied him of the immediate necessity of amendments to the organic law. Believing therefore, that with all these facts, all these demands of the people, all this threatened ruin by taxation of his people, he would vote that they be allowed to decide for themselves these important questions, and therefore, should vote aye.

Mr. Graham said that he entertained no doubt as to the power of the General Assembly to submit the question to the people of North Carolina as to whether or not they will call a Convention. He should cheerfully vote for the bill, and in doing so, carry out the wishes of his constituents, as they feel that a change is needed in our present form of government and, as so much had been said here about lawlessness, he thought the best way to prevent it, would be to place fearless men in the judiciary who command the respect and confidence of the people. He would have preferred an open and unrestricted Convention, but as he could not get that he should vote for this measure.

Mr. Love said he entertained no doubts as to the constitutionality of the measure, but he desired to amend the bill in a certain particular which would have coincided with his views and with the wishes of his constituents if it could have been adopted, yet he was in favor of a Convention and should support this measure as the best he could get.

Mr. McClammy said that he came here fully impressed with the necessity for a Convention. He believed then and did so yet, that the delegates to a Convention of the people of North Carolina would not interfere with any of those sections in the bill imposing restrictions, and therefore he thought an open Convention would be preferable, but as it might be inexpedient to call an open Convention he would cheerfully yield to the wishes of the friends of a restricted Convention, and upon the passage of the bill he should vote yes.

Mr. Merrimon said that the bill did not suit his view exactly, for the reason that there were too many restrictions in it, he would have voted for it cheerfully if there had been none except in reference to the Homestead, but he felt the great necessity for a Convention and should support this bill.

Mr. Morehead said that owing to the peculiar and personal character of the discussion in his district during the late canvass, he fairly and squarely pledged to try this Constitution this year, and whilst with his constituents he should advocate the call of a Convention, he felt compelled to vote no.

Mr. Murphy said as he had hitherto taken no part in this discussion, he desired to explain his vote upon the passage of this bill. If he understood the feelings and wishes of his constituents with regard to the question of Convention, they desired the calling of one, in the most economical, and speedy manner possible. The bill contained more restrictions than appeared to him needful, but as the Senate had placed them there, he was ready to record his vote in the affirmative upon the bill, and felt sure the people whom he had the honor to represent in part, would most heartily endorse his action, by rolling up an overwhelming majority for a Convention on the day designated for the election.

Mr. Troy said as to the Constitutionality of the question, he was fully satisfied as to the expediency. He thought our situation demanded a Convention, representing as he did a large colored constituency. If he had the most remote idea that the Convention would interfere with or abridge any of their rights, he would vote against the bill, but he had no such apprehension and believing that the interests of the colored race are identified with those of the white race in the prosperity of North Carolina, he should vote in the affirmative on the bill.

Mr. Norment said though the bill did not accord entirely with his views, he should support it, and related a story of a very unfortunate man, who got in a very bad box. We regret that we have not the space to relate it here.

Mr. Waddell said he felt that he was about to vote for the most important measure that had been presented for the consideration of the Senate; he should support the measure cheerfully, because he believed it would meet the approbation of his constituents.

Mr. Battle said the bill did not accord with his views in several particulars, yet he saw the necessity for a convention and should support it.

Mr. Albright said that he saw very plainly now, that no man should make pledges in advance to his constituents; he was pledged to go against a convention, but since he had been here and heard the views of Senators from different portions of the State, as to the feelings of their constituents, and the able arguments in favor of a convention, he was at a loss to know what to do; he desired to do what was right and best for his people, and as this bill only proposed to submit the question of calling a convention to the people, and let them decide it for themselves, let them say whether they would have it or not; he felt that he could not vote to deprive his constituents of the privilege of voting on this question; under these circumstances he felt that he would be doing right to vote for the bill.

The ballot was taken and resulted as follows, to wit:

AYES—Messrs. Adams, Albright, Battle, Cook, Council, Crowell, Dargan, Fleming, Gilmer, Graham, Jones, Ledbetter, Linney, Love, Mauney, McClammy, Merrimon, Murphy, Norment, Robbins of Davidson, Robbins of Rowan, Skinner, Speed, Troy, Waddell, Warren, Whitesides, and Worth—28.

NAYS—Messrs. Barnett, Beasley, Bellamy, Brogden, Cowles, Currie, Eppes, col., Flythe, Hymen, col., King, Lehman, McCotter, Moore, Moorehead, and Price, col.—15.

The President (Mr. Warren in the chair) said that he entertained no doubt upon the constitutional question which had been submitted to the Senate. He adopted, as among the reasons which led him to the conclusion that it was competent for the General Assembly, by a simple majority, to pass the bill under consideration. The following remarks made by Gov. Graham, in the Senate of North Carolina, in 1854, to wit:

"But I am told that it is now prohibited by a clause in the amendments of 1835, in these words: "No Convention of the people shall be called by the General Assembly unless by the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members of each House of the General Assembly." Let us examine it.—It is a prohibition—upon whom? The General Assembly, unless two-thirds concur. Against doing what? Calling a Convention,—exercising their authoritative power to bring into existence, a body with power over the Constitution. For it is manifestly intended that if majorities of two-thirds do concur, they may direct a Convention to be elected and assembled, with full power to annul the whole Constitution and substitute another in its stead, without consulting the people at first, or submitting it to them at least.—The Legislature evidently has no power to limit a Convention, or to require it to submit its work to the people. Against a Convention with such powers, and such irresponsibility, this provision was intended to guard. But upon that safe and tried method of a proposition by the Legislature to the people, and a call by the people themselves, it has no operation. Restraining and disabling provisions upon the power of the people are to be strictly construed. They had the right to call a Convention, and the Legislature had the power to provide them the means for the exercise of that right in 1835, as we have seen. Does a prohibition on the Legislature against calling a Convention itself take away either this right of the people or the power of the Legislature to provide for its exercise?

I am corroborated in this view by what occurred in the Convention. First, a Committee reported a mode for amending the Constitution by what is called the legislative method. Taking it for granted that that did not exclude the power to resort to Conventions as another means of amending, Mr. Meares, of Sampson, proposed an article "so that no Convention of the people should hereafter be called, except by the concurrent vote of two-thirds of each House of the General Assembly." Deb con. 360. Did this pass? If it had, I should have surrendered the question.—But Mr. Giles, of Rowan, and others remonstrated; and after debate, Mr. Meares modified "his amendment so as to provide that no convention shall hereafter be called by the General Assembly except by the concurrent vote of two thirds of each House. Mr. Giles said he was perfectly satisfied, and the amendment in that shape was adopted. (Deb. Con. 372, 3.) Now, what was the difference? The first proposition was general, and prevented the call of a convention in any way except by the concurrence of two thirds of each House, and was tantamount to saying no convention shall be called, either by the people or by the General Assembly, except with the previous concurrence of two thirds of each House of the General Assembly. Upon remonstrance being made, Mr. Meares modifies, so as to leave out the restraint on the people, and confine the power to call in the General Assembly to a two thirds vote, leaving to the people the right which they had had, and under which that convention was then sitting. And if the right remained to them, the power and duty of the General Assembly, in a proper case, to provide a remedy is not taken away by forbidding it to call a convention, except by two thirds. For, according to the opposite construction, even two thirds could not submit the question to the people, of whether they will have a convention, but must themselves call it, or there will be none at all."

Mr. Warren then said: The occupant of the chair also takes the liberty of calling the attention of the Senate to the 37th section of the Bill of Rights, a provision not incorporated in the old constitution: "This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people; and all powers not herein delegated remain with the people." I therefore announce that the bill has passed its third and last reading.

On motion of Mr. Graham the bill was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the House.

Leave of absence was granted to Messrs. Albright and Moore.

On motion the Senate adjourned until to night at 7:30 o'clock.

SENATE.

NIGHT SESSION.

MONDAY, Dec. 19, 1870.

The Senate met at half past 7 o'clock. Mr. Warren in the Chair.

On motion of Mr. Graham the rules were suspended for the purpose of taking up the following bills and putting them on their passage, to-wit:

Bill to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh, with amendments from the committee, which were adopted and the bill passed its several readings.

Bill to amend the charter of the town of Elizabeth City, was amended and passed its several readings.

Bill in relation to the management of the Deaf, Dumb and Blind Asylum, was amended and passed its several readings.

On motion the bill relating to the Salaries and Fees of public officers was taken up.

The motion pending was that of Mr. Love to reconsider the vote by which the Senate struck out a salary of $50 for the Superintendent of Public Instruction and inserted $1500 in its stead.

After some discussion the motion was lost.

On motion of Mr. Graham, the bill to authorize the Commissioners of Orange to levy a special tax was taken up, and passed its second reading.

On motion the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NIGHT SESSION.

MONDAY, Dec. 19.

The House was called to order at 7:15.

On motion of Mr. Dunham, a message was sent to the Senate informing that body of the action of the House in regard to the articles of impeachment against Governor Holden.

On motion of Mr. Broadfoot, the rules were suspended and the bill in reference to the town of Fayetteville was taken up.

Mr. Broadfoot called the previous question. The called being sustained the bill passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 44, nays 41.

Page, col., moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed its second reading.

After a long debate, Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table.

The yeas and nays were called and the motion was carried by a vote of yeas 48, nays 31.

The bill was put on its third reading and passed by a vote of yeas 45, nays 31.

On motion of Jones, of Caldwell, the rules were suspended and his resolution in relation to sending a joint Committee of 3, one on the part of the Senate and two on part of the House to Chapel Hill to investigate the affairs of the University of North Carolina, was taken up and passed its several readings.

By Mr. Mills: A resolution in regard to leaves of absence; placed on calendar.

Adjourned.

NOTE.—In explanation of his vote on the Fayetteville bill on its second reading Mr. Mills said: He would like to see the old regime restored. He desired to see it restored by amendments to the Constitution and not by violating it. He did not say this bill violated the Constitution, but he did not think he would be justified in voting for it if he had a reasonable doubt of its constitutionality, and as he did have his doubts, therefore, he was compelled to vote "no."

Mr. Crawford, in explanation of his vote on the same bill on its second reading, said that he always voted to suit himself, but as it seemed to be the fashion of gentlemen to explain their votes, he would follow their example in this case. He did not desire to interrogate gentlemen as regards their own vote and course, but as for his own, he understood that the mayor of Fayetteville was a man of despicable character, one who should not be trusted with the government of any community. One of the aldermen, himself white, was married to a black woman, in defiance of all decency and propriety, and regard for public opinion. Only one of the aldermen was a man of any property, while the others were bankrupt in property and character. He had no idea of subjecting the virtue, the respectability, or the property of any people to the control of such cattle, and therefore embraced with pleasure the opportunity to give back to the people to their old rights, and place them again where they once stood.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 20.

The Senate met at 10 o'clock. The President in the Chair.

Prayer by Senator Norment.

Mr Olds was permitted to record his vote against the passage of the Convention bill.

Messrs. Speed and Dargan were appointed the Senate branch of the Joint Committee on per diem and mileage.

Mr. Robbins of Davidson, explained that he had been misinformed in regard to Mr. Best being about to remove from the city when he proposed to substitute the name of Mr. L. E. Heartt for his on the Board of Trustees of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind.—This statement he considered due to Mr. Best.

Mr. Merrimon introduced a memorial from citizens of Western North Carolina in relation to the W. N. C. R. R. Co.—Placed on calendar to be considered with a bill on that subject already introduced.

A number of bills were reported correctly enrolled.

The rules were suspended and the bill in relation to the town of Goldsboro was taken up, pending the consideration of which,

At 11 o'clock, the Committee of Managers in the matter of the impeachment of the Governor, accompanied by the members of the House of Representatives, entered the Senate chamber and were accommodated with seats on the right of Chair.

Mr. Sparrow, on behalf the Managers, said:

MR. PRESIDENT:—The Managers of the House of Representatives, by order of the House, are at the bar of the Senate to deliver to you, as the presiding officer thereof, it being the pleasure of the Senate now to receive them, articles of impeachment, preferred against William W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina.

We deliver to you the Articles as adopted by the House, and in the name of the House and of all the people of North Carolina demand that the Senate take order thereon.

President Caldwell said: In behalf of the Senate I receive the Articles of impeachment against William W. Holden, Governor.

Proclamation was then made enjoining silence in the Senate whilst the Articles of impeachment were being preferred.

The Articles were then read.

The Articles having been read, the President said:

Articles of impeachment having been exhibited in the Senate against W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, it becomes my duty, as presiding officer of the Senate, to inform the House of Representatives that the Senate will take proper order on the subject of impeachment, of which due notice will be given to the House of Representatives.

The Managers and members of the House then withdrew.

President Caldwell then said:

"SENATORS:—It now becomes my duty under the Constitution and Laws of the State, to retire for the time being, from the chair as your presiding officer, and take charge of another department. Allow me, before retiring, to return to you individually and as a body, my unfeigned thanks for the courtesy, kindness and consideration which you have always extended to me personally and as your presiding officer."

The President having vacated the chair,

On motion, Mr. Dargan was elected temporary chairman pending the election of a President of the Senate.

The vote resulted in the election of Mr. Warren—Messrs. Graham, Dargan, Brogden and W. M. Robbins receiving complimentary votes.

President Warren thanked the Senate for the compliment in selecting him as their presiding officer. The Senate would remember that the duties of the office were new to him—that he was not an adept in parliamentary law, or in the rules of the Senate—and that he would stand in need of aid. If, however, these imperfections should be overlooked, he believed there would be harmony in the Senate.

After considerable debate on the question of requesting the attendance of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to organize the court of impeachment—the question being simply that of the time—the Senate resolved to send a committee to request the Chief Justice's attendance on Friday morning next.

On motion of Mr. Jones the Articles of Impeachment were ordered to be printed—two copies for each member of the Senate.

The consideration of the bill to amend the charter of the town of Goldsboro' was resumed.

Mr. Brogden opposed the bill.

Mr. Murphy advocated its passage.

The bill passed its second and third readings, and ordered to be engrossed.

The bill authorizing the Public Treasurer to use a portion of the special tax fund now in his hands for the use of the charitable institutions of the State, the Penitentiary, and for general State purposes—$200,000 in all—passed its third reading and goes to the House.

The committee on conference on per diem reported in favor of the original bill passed by the House—$5 per day, &c. Concurred in—aye 20, no 17.

Mr. Cowles was appointed to wait upon the Chief Justice.

House bill to provide for the election of a Keeper of the Capitol on the 21st inst., passed its several readings.

Adjourned till to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, Dec. 20, 1870.

House called to order at the usual hour.

Prayer by Rev. Tucker, col., of the House.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

Mr. Johnston of Buncombe, presented a memorial from certain citizens of Wester North Carolina in regard to the construction of the Western Division of the Western N. C. R. R. The memorial was appropriately referred.

Mr. Sparrow arose to a question of privilege. The Standard in its report of Monday's proceedings of the House stated that Mr. Jarvis' resolution provided that the 7 managers of the impeachment trial, should employ "seven other counsel" to assist in the trial.

Mr. Sparrow proceeded to read the original resolution which stated that the Board of managers might employ counsel. He did not believe that the misrepresentation was intentional and only mentioned the matter that the mistake might be corrected.

The Chairmen of various Committees submitted reports from their respective Committees.

By Mr. Gregory: A resolution that the managers of impeachment be allowed to employ a Clerk and messengers during the trial, and be allowed to send for persons and papers; placed on calendar.

By Mr. Johnston of Buncombe: A resolution that the Bill of Indictment against Geo. W. Swepson and M. S. Littlefield, found by the Grand Jury of Buncombe county, be placed in the hands of the Governor that he may take steps to have the parties arrested; placed on the calendar,

By Sykes, col.: A resolution in regard to the rules of the House; placed on calendar.

On motion of Mr. Gregory, the rules were suspended and his resolution that the board of managers be allowed to employ a clerk and messengers during the trial and have power to send for persons and papers, was taken up.

Dudley, col., moved to lay the resolution on the table.

The motion was lost by a vote of yeas 36, nays 55.

The resolution was then adopted by a vote of yeas 52, nays 37.

Mr. Strudwick offered the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Senate has notified the House that the Senate will receive the Articles of Impeachment against W. W. Holden at 11 A. M. to-day:

Resolved, That the House of Representatives attend the Managers to the Senate Chamber at 11 o'clock, in the following order:

1st. The managers, two and two, headed by their Chairman.
2d. The Speaker of the House.
3d. The Principal and Assistant Clerks.
4th. The members, two and two.

Mr. Harris, of Franklin, offered a proviso, that any member desiring it be excused from attending the managers. Mr Harris said the Republican members did not wish to participate in such farcical proceedings.

Mr. Johnston of Buncombe replied that he rather favored the proviso, as the majority of the House were about to engage in matters in which the honor and dignity of the State were involved and should be maintained, and in order that the proceedings be clothed with that dignity, decorum and decency proper to the occasion, he was very willing that the Radical part of the House should be excused from attending.

Mr. Strudwick said that the resolution was one usual to such occasions, and was not compulsory upon any one.

[Page, col., and one or two others of the Republican side of the House, wanted the yeas and nays, and were disposed to delay the adoption of the resolution by parliamentary tactics, but were not sustained by their party friends.]

The resolution as amended was then adopted.

The Board of Managers then presented themselves at the Speaker's desk.

Mr. Speaker Jarvis then said to the Chairman of the Board of Managers, (Mr.

I present to you articles impeaching W. W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, which you are ordered to present at the bar of the Senate.

The House then, in the order designated in the above resolution, proceeded to the Senate Chamber. [For proceedings see Senate report.]

After an absence of some half an hour the members of the House returned to their Hall and were called to order by the Speaker.

A message was received from the Senate informing the House that the Senate had passed the bill concerning a Convention of the people, and asking the concurrence of the House therein.

On motion of Mr. Johnston of Buncombe, the rules were suspended and the Convention bill was taken up, referred to the Committee on Constitutional Reform, ordered to be printed, and made the special order for to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Shull, the rules were suspended and the bill in favor of the Sheriff of Watauga, was taken up, the Senate's amendment concurred in, and the bill ordered to be enrolled for ratification.

Mr. Robinson, from the Committee on Enrolement, reported several bills as correctly enrolled.

On motion of Mr. Joyner of Johnston, the rules were suspended, and the bill making a failure to work on public roads a misdemeanor, was taken up.

Reavis, col., moved to indefinitely postpone the bill.

Willis, col., was opposed to the indefinite postponement of the bill, as it made all parties, white and black, do their duty.

Mr. Joyner of Johnston, was opposed to the motion to postpone the bill, as some such bill was necessary to the relief of Overseers. He wished the bill to be recommitted in order to have it perfected. He moved to recommit.

Mr. Waring opposed postponement. In his county all classes were in favor of having some good and just law in regard to working roads and putting them in a good condition.

Mr. Robinson said that some such bill was one of the prime wants in the western section of the State. He was rejoiced to hear the Representative from Craven (Willis) take strong grounds in favor of some such bill. The Representatives from Craven some 12 months ago bitterly opposed the passage of any bill providing for the working of public roads, &c.

After some discussion the motion to indefinitely postpone was put to a vote and lost.

The bill was then recommitted to the Committee on Counties and Townships.

On motion of Mr. Ashe, the rules were suspended and the bill in relation to Inspectors for the city of Wilmington, was taken up. [The bill provides that any person upon application to the Clerk of the Superior Court of New Hanover county, and upon proof before such Clerk, that such applicant is of good moral character, and competent to discharge the duties of an Inspector, shall, on the payment of $25, be entitled to receive, from such Clerk, a license to inspect, weigh, measure or guage in the city of Wilmington, &c.]

Mabson, col., offered an amendment which, in substance, gives the appointment of such inspectors, weighers, &c., to the Board of County Commissioners.

Mr. Ashe hoped the bill would pass just as it came from the Senate. The bill was gotten up in the interest of no man or set of men, but was offered after consultation with numerous parties, and was offered in the interest of both the producer and the buyer, and had not the least party tinge about it, and he hoped it would meet the approbation of all. The appointments, as the law now stood, were vested in the Governor and political appointments had been made, but this proposed to do away with such appointments.

Mabson's amendment was put to a vote and lost.

The bill then passed its second reading.

On motion of Mr. Ashe, the rules were suspended and the bill passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Robinson, the rules were suspended and his resolution restricting the Secretary of State to $50 in purchasing a supply of stationery for the use of the General Assembly for the next month, was taken up and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Houston, the rules were suspended and the bill in reference to the act incorporating the town of Hickory Tavern, Catawba county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Lassiter, the rules were suspended and the bill to authorize the Commissioners of Randolph county to appoint a tax collector was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Nicholson, the rules were suspended and the bill to define the power and duties of the Commissioners of Iredell county concerning a certain bridge in that county, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Johnston, of Buncombe, the rules were suspended and his resolution placing in the hands of the Governor, a copy of the bill of the indictment, found by the Grand Jury of Buncombe county against Geo. W. Swepson and M. S. Littlefield, in order that he might have them arrested, was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Jordan, the rules were suspended, and his bill creating a commission to inquire into charges of corruption, was taken up.

Mr. Jordan offered amendments to the preamble and section 1st, which were adopted.

Mr. McAfee moved to strike out the name of "M. V. Lanier," and insert that of "H. W. Guion," of Mecklenburg; lost.

Mr. Strudwick moved to amend by inserting the names of David Coleman of Buncombe, and John U. Kirkland of Orange, in the commission. He thought the efficiency of the commission would be increased by the addition of these gentlemen.

Mr. Justice moved to amend the amendment offered by Mr. Strudwick, by striking out the name of "David Coleman," and insert the name of "Marcus Erwin," in lieu thereof; lost.

Messrs. Johns and Tomlinson were opposed to the increase of the commission to 5. They thought 3 were amply sufficient to carry out the object of the commission, and would be less expensive to the State.

Mr. Chamberlain did not see any necessity why the commission should be increased to five, when three would do as well, if not better, and would be far less expensive.

Mr. Strudwick's amendment was put to a vote, and rejected.

Mr. Harris of Franklin, moved to strike out the name of "Robt. Strange," in the Commission and insert that of "W. S. Scott of Greensboro';" lost.

Mr. Goodwyn moved to strike out the name of "Robt. Strange" and insert the name of "M. W. Ransom;" lost.

Sykes, col., moved to strike out the name of "Robt. Strange" and insert that of "Josiah Turner, Jr., of Orange;" lost.

On motion of Mr. Jordan, the previous question was called and the bill passed its second reading by a vote of yeas 92, nays 0.

The bill reads as follows:

WHEREAS, The last General Assembly authorized the issue to various Railroad Companies, of many millions of dollars in the bonds of the State, for alleged purposes of internal improvement, and said bonds were issued and placed in the hands of the officers of said Companies; and, whereas, this General Assembly has reason to believe that inadequate results have accrued therefrom, but that a large proportion of said bonds have been corruptly diverted from any purpose of internal improvement to the personal ends of certain individuals, and have been dishonestly disposed of to the credit abroad, and the criminal disregard of her material interests at home; and, whereas, it has been commonly charged that a portion of said bonds, or of the proceeds thereof, have been used for purposes of bribery within and without the State of North Carolina; and, whereas, there have been many charges of official venality and corruption in North Carolina during the last few years, and of conspiracy by and between certain evil minded persons to deprive the free people of North Carolina of their rights and liberties; and, whereas, it is right, just and necessary that the truth or falsehood of all such charges affecting the good name of the State, should be ascertained and published, that if true, offenders may be punished, or if false slanderers may be refuted and the honor of the State in either event vindicated.

SECTION 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That David S. Reid, of Rockingham, Robert Strange, of Wilmington, and M. V. Lanier, of Granville, are appointed a commission, whose duty it shall be to investigate the matters herein referred to. They shall ascertain as far as possible the use made of every one of said bonds, or of any part of the proceeds thereof. They shall further make diligent inquiry, until the whole truth is ascertained, into every imputation of bribery, corruption and conspiracy against any and every official of the State, or of any corporation wherein the State has, or has had an interest, from whatsoever source the imputation may reach their ears: provided, that they are at liberty to exercise their discretion as to the weight and merit of mere rumors not based on evidence, and may investigate any charge or not, according to their best judgment; but that they shall have no option whenever there appears reasonable ground therefor, but shall investigate the same regardless of persons.

SEC. 2. That in furtherance of the objects of said commission, chapter 5, and all of chapter forty eight except the preamble and section four of said chapter forty eight, of the act of 1869-'70, are hereby re enacted, and made a part of this act, as fully as if the same were here particularly set forth.

SEC. 3. That the said commissioners be allowed —— dollars per diem each for their services as said commissioners, for every day actually and necessarily employed by them in the discharge of their said duties, and all necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of the same; and that all witnesses appearing before them under their [summons] shall be allowed —— dollars per diem, and —— cents per mile, for every mile actually and necessarily traveled in obedience to said summons.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer is directed to pay upon the warrant of the chairman of the commission, countersigned by the Auditor, all sums which shall become due under this act for per diem of the members of the commission, and for per diem and mileage of witnesses, and for Sheriff's and Coroner's fees; and all other expenses incurred by said commission shall be returned under oath, by items, to this House before being allowed, and when so allowed, shall be paid by the Treasurer upon the warrant of the Speaker of this House, countersigned by the Auditor.

SEC. 5. This act shall be in force from its ratification.

On motion of Mr Jordan the House adjourned until 7:30 this evening.

A PROCLAMATION
By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT OF N. C.
RALEIGH, Dec. 19, 1870.

WHEREAS, since the publication of my Proclamation, of date, 14th December inst., appointing the 14th day of January next, as the time for holding the election to supply the vacancy in the 20th Senatorial District, our General Assembly has passed an act, altering the time of said election, as follows:

AN ACT IN RELATION TO AN ELECTION TO FILL THE VACANCY IN THE 20TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

SEC. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That a special election shall be held on the 24th day of December, 1870, for the purpose of filling the vacancy now existing in the 20th Senatorial District.

SEC. 2. The Governor shall issue writs of election to the sheriffs of said District and the said election shall be held at the time above designated and in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

SEC. 3. This act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

In General Assembly, read three times and ratified this the 17th day of Dec., A. D. 1870.

(Signed.) T. J. JARVIS,
Speaker of the House.
(Signed.) TOD. R. CALDWELL,
President of the Senate.

Now therefore, I, W. W. HOLDEN, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do issue this Proclamation, recalling my former Proclamation and ordering said election to be held on the 24th December, inst., as provided in said Act, and that the result thereof be certified as the law directs.

[L. S.] Done at our city of Raleigh, this 19th day of Dec., 1870, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninety-fifth.

ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT.

Articles exhibited by the House of Representatives of the State of North Carolina in the name of themselves, and all the people of the State of North Carolina, against William W. Holden, Governor of the State of North Carolina, in maintenance and support of their impeachment against him, for high crimes and misdemeanors in his said office.

ARTICLE I.

That by the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, the Governor of said State has power to call out the militia thereof, to execute the laws, suppress riots or insurrection, and repel invasion wherever the execution of the law shall be resisted, or there shall exist any riot, insurrection or invasion, but not otherwise; that William W. Holden, Governor of said State, unmindful of the high duties of his office, the obligation of his solemn oath of office, and the Constitution and laws of said State, and intending to stir up civil war and subvert personal and public liberty and the Constitution and laws of said State, and of the United States, and contriving and intending to humiliate and degrade the said State and the people thereof, and especially the people of the county of Alamance, and to provoke the people to wrath and violence, did, under color of his said office, on the seventh day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and seventy, in said State, of his own false, corrupt and wicked mind and purpose, proclaim and declare that the county of Alamance, in said State, was in insurrection; and did, after the days and times, last aforesaid, send bodies of armed, desperate and lawless men, organized and set on foot, without authority of law, into said county, and occupy the same by military force and suspend civil authority, and the Constitution and laws of the State; and did, after the days and times, last aforesaid, and before the time of impeachment in this behalf, through and by means of such armed, desperate and lawless men, arrest many peaceable and law-abiding citizens of said county of Alamance, then and there about their lawful business; and did detain, hold, imprison, hang, beat and otherwise maltreat and injure many of them, to wit: Lucien H. Murray, George S. Rogers, Wm. Bingham, Alexander Wilson, Walter Thornton, Wm. Redding, Thomas M. Holt, Geo. Andrews, John Andrews, Fred Blanchard, Adolphus G. Moore, John Roberson, James N. Holt, Wm. Tate, Alex. Patton, Jesse Grant, Lem. Whitsett, Josiah Thompson, Sidney Steel, George Johnson, Wm. Patton, Joseph Right, Ben McAdams, Ruffin Andrews, Tomas Ray, Joseph Pritchard, Loften Tear, Joseph Thompson, Henry Cook, Wm. Andrews, M. N. Shaw, John Long, James H. Anderson, Joseph Gibson, Henry Prichard, Joseph Nelson, James R. Murphy, Jr., Wm. Kirkpatrick, Thomas Gray, Jefferson Younger, Frank Mebane, Clement Curtis, John W. McAdams, Wm. Moore, Wm. Clendenen, D. W. Wheeden, Daniel Moses, P. Thompson, David Moore, Monroe Fowler, Henry C. Hurdle, William Whitsett, Albert Murray, J. G. Moore, Joseph Kirkpatrick, W. V. Montgomery, John Trollinger, Jerry Whitsett, Calvin Gibson, John G. Albright, Robt. Hannah, Wm. Johnson, Henderson Scott, William Stockard, James Dickson, K. A. Albright, Thomas [illegible], John Grant, James Foust, John Curtis, A. Thompson, Robt. Stockard, J. A. Moore, James T. Hunter, James S. Scott, John Smith, George Andrews Millon Pickard, Henry Robertson, John R. Stockard, John Curtis and Joseph Stockard, when, in fact and truth, there was no such or any insurrection in said county of Alamance.

And he, the said William W. Holden, Governor, as aforesaid, well knew that such and said proclamation was utterly groundless and false, and that there was no insurrection in said county, and that all civil authorities, both State and county, in said county, were peacefully and regularly in the full, free and unrestrained exercise, in all respects, of the functions of their offices, and the Courts were all open, and the due administration of the law, was unimpeded by any resistance whatsoever, whereby the said William W. Holden, Governor, as aforesaid, did, then and there, and in the way and manner, and by the means, aforesaid, commit and was guilty of a high crime in office against the Constitution and laws of said State and the peace, interests and dignity thereof.

ARTICLE II.

That by the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, the Governor of said State has power to call out the militia thereof to execute the law, suppress riots, or insurrection, whenever the execution of the law shall be resisted, or there shall exist any riot, insurrection, or invasion, but not otherwise. That William W. Holden, Governor of said State, unmindful of the high duties of his office, the obligations of his solemn oath of office, and the Constitution and laws of said State, and intending to stir up civil war, and subvert personal and public liberty, and the Constitution and laws of said State and of the United States, and contriving and intending to humiliate and degrade the said State and the people thereof, and especially the people of the county of Caswell in said State, and to provoke the people to wrath and violence, did, under the color of his said officers, on the eighth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in said State, of his own false, corrupt and wicked mind and purpose, proclaim and declare the County of Caswell, in said State, in insurrection, and did, after the days and times last aforesaid, send bodies of armed, desperate and lawless men, organized and set on foot without authority of law, into the said county, and occupy the same by military force, and suspend the civil authority and the Constitution and laws of the State, and did, after the days and times last aforesaid, and before the time of impeachment in this behalf, through and by means of such armed, desperate and lawless men, arrest many peaceable and law-abiding citizens of said County of Caswell, then and there about their lawful business, and did detain, hold, imprison, and otherwise maltreat and injure many of them to-wit: John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, William B. Bowe, Nathaniel M. Roan, Frank A. Wiley, Jesse C. Griffith, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancey, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancey Jones, J. M. Neal, Barzillai Graves, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson, and Peter H. Williamson, when in fact and truth there was no such or any insurrection in said County of Caswell; and he, the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, well knew that such and said proclamation was utterly groundless and false, and that there was no insurrection in said County of Caswell, and that all the civil authorities, both State and county, in said county, were peacefully and regularly in the full, free and unrestrained exercise, in all respects, of the functions of their offices, and the courts were all open, and the due administration

liam W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did then and there, and in the way and manner, and by the means aforesaid, commit and was guilty of a high crime in office against the Constitution and laws of said State, and the peace, interest, and dignity thereof.

ARTICLE III.

That the said William W. Holden, Governor of the State of North Carolina, on the fifth day of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and and seventy in the county of Orange in said State, did then and there unlawfully and without any lawful warrant and authority, and in defiance and subversion of the Constitution and laws of said State, and in violation of his oath of office and under color of his said office, incite, procure order and command one John Hunnicutt and other evil-disposed persons to assault, seize, detain and imprison and deprive of his liberty and privileges as a freeman and citizen of said State, Josiah Turner, Jr., a citizen and resident of the county of Orange in the State aforesaid; and in pursuance of said incitement, procurement, order and command the said John Hunnicutt and the evil-disposed persons aforesaid did assault, seize, detain, imprison and deprive of his liberty and privileges as a freeman and citizen of said county and State for a long time, to-wit: For the time of ten days and more the said Josiah Turner Jr., whereby the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did then and there commit a high misdemeanor in office against the Constitution and laws of said State, and the peace, interests and dignity thereof.

ARTICLE IV.

That the said William W. Holden, Governor of the State of North Carolina, on the first day of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the county of Caswell in said State, did, then and there, unlawfully and without any lawful warrant and authority, and in defiance and subversion of the constitution and laws of said State and in violation of his oath of office and under color of his said office, incite, procure, order and command one George W. Kirk, and one B. G. Burgen and other evil disposed persons to assault, seize, detain and imprison and deprive of their liberty and privileges as freemen and citizens of said State, John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, William B. Bowe and Nathaniel M. Roane, citizens and residents of the county of Caswell in the State aforesaid; and in pursuance of said incitement, procurement, order and command the said George W. Kirk and the said B. G. Burgen and the evil disposed persons aforesaid, did assault, seize, detain, imprison and deprive of their liberty and privileges as free men and citizens of said county and State for a long time, to-wit: for the time of one month and more the said Jno. Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, William B. Bowe, and Nathaniel M. Roane, whereby the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did, then and there commit and was guilty of a high misdemeanor in office against the constitution and laws of said State, and the peace, interest and dignity thereof.

ARTICLE V.

That the said William W. Holden, Governor of the State of North Carolina heretofore to wit: in the months of June, July and August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, under color af his said office, unlawfully recruited, armed and equipped as soldiers, a large number of men, to wit: five hundred men and more, and organized them as an army, and appointed officers to command, and use such armed men as he the said William W. Holden, Governor under color of his said office, might from time to time direct; that during the said months of June, July and August, he the said William W. Holden, Governor, as aforesaid, under color of his said office, placed a large number of said armed men under the immediate command and control of one George W. Kirk, as Colonel, aided by one B. G. Burgen, as Lieutenant-Colonel, one H. C. Yates, as Major, and sundry other persons as Captains and Lieutenants, and sent such last mentioned armed men, under the immediate command of George W. Kirk as Colonel, B. G. Burgen as Lieutenant-Colonel, H. C. Yates as Major and said sundry other persons as Captains and Lieutenants into the county of Alamance and by the procurement, order and command of him the said William W. Holden Governor as aforesaid under color of his said office, the said armed men last aforesaid, seized, held, detained and imprisoned, in said county of Alamance one Adolphus G. Moore, a peaceable and law abiding citizen of said county, then and there engaged about his lawful business. That the said Adolphus G. Moore, being so seized, held, detained and imprisoned and deprived of his liberty, was then and there, in the custody of the said George W. Kirk acting as Colonel and commanding the armed body of men, last aforesaid, by the order command and procurement of the said William W. Holden; That the said Adolphus G. Moore being so seized, held and imprisoned and deprived of his liberty made due application to the Honorable Richmond M. Pearson, Cheif Justice of the Supreme Court of said State, as by law he might do, for the writ of habeas corpus to the end, that he the said Chief Justice might duly enquire the cause of said seizure, detention and imprisonment and deliver him from the same according to law. That the said Chief Justice issued the writ of habeas corpus at the instance of the said Adolphus G. Moore, directed to the said George W. Kirk commanding him forthwith to produce the body of the said Adolphus G. Moore before him the said Chief Justice, at the Chamber of the Supreme Court in the City of Raleigh in said State; that said George W. Kirk was on the seventeenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and seventy, in the county of Alamance, duly served with the said writ of habeas corpus; that he made no return of or to the same, as required by law, and refused to produce the body of the said Adolphus G. Moore before the Chief Justice according ro the exigency of said writ, avowing and declaring that he had made such seizure and detained and imprisoned the said Adolphus G. Moore at the instance of and by the procurement, command and order of the said William W. Holden Governor as aforesaid and would not produce the body of him the said Adolphus G. Moore, before the said Chief Justice according to the exigency of said writ, unless compelled so to do by superior armed force, or by the express order and command of the said William W. Holden Governor as aforesaid. That such refusal of the said George W. Kirk to obey the said writ was made duly to appear before the said Chief Justice, whereupon the said Chief Justice made enquiry of the said William W. Holden Governor as aforesaid, if he had so ordered the said George W. Kirk, to so seize detain and imprison the said Adolphus G. Moore, that the said William W. Holdon, Governor as aforesaid, made answer in substance and to the effect to said enquiry of said Chief Justice, that he had theretofore ordered and commanded the said George W. Kirk to so seize, detain and imprison and deprive of his liberty the said Adolphus G. Moore and that such seizure and detention was made by his order and command; whereupon the said Chief Justice upon due consideration solemnly adjudged in substance and effect that according to the Constitution and laws of said State the privelege of the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended and that the said George W. Kirk and the said William W. Holden Governor as aforesaid, were in duty bound to bring and produce the body of the said Adolphus G. Moore,

ing to the exigency of the said writ, yet the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, unmindful of his most solemn oath of office and his high duties as the Executive of said Stat,d and contriving and then and there intending to deprive the said Adolphus G. Moore of his liberty as a free citizen of said State, and to defy and subvert the Constitution and laws of said State declared that he had so ordered and did still so order, and commanded the said George W. Kirk, not to obey the said writ so issued by the said Chief Justice and then and there declared to the said Chief Justice that he the said William W. Holden, Goveanor as aforesaid, would not obey the said writ or the command of the said Chief Justice in that behalf, and that he would not allow the said George W. Kirk to obey the same and produce the body of the said Adolphus G. Moore, before the said Chief Justice, according to the exigency of said writ, until such time as in his discretion he might think proper so to do. That while the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, so seized, held, detained, imprisoned and deprived of his liberty, said Adolphus G. Moore, and so refused to obey the said writ, and to command the said George W. Kirk so to do, and so resisted the laws and the lawful authority of the said Chief Justice, he was, by his own procurement, order and command, supported in that behalf by the means and use of said armed men, so commanded and controlled as aforesaid, and so the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did, in the way and manner and by the means aforesaid, procure, order and command the said George W. Kirk, so charged by said writ of habeas corpus, to refuse to make due return of or to the same, and produce the body of the said Adolphus G. Moore, before the said Chief Justice, according to the exigency of the said writ, and to resist the same and the lawful authority of the said Chief Justice, and did, himself, then and there, in the way and manner and by the means aforesaid, resist the due execution of the said writ, and the lawful authority of the said Chief Justice, and did, then and there, in the way and manner and by the means and armed force aforesaid, suspend the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus, and did, unlawfully and violently, seize, detain, hold, imprison and deprive of his liberty, the said Adolphus G. Moore, and for a long time, to wit: for the space of one calendar month, after the said Chief Justice had adjudged such detention illegal, did continue to hold and detain and cause to be held and detained said Adolphus G. Moore, and did, in the way and manner and by the means aforesaid, make the military supersede and prevail over the lawful civil power of the State, all which acts, matters and things he, the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did as aforesaid, in violation of his solemn oath of office, and whereby he, the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did, then and there, commit high crimes and misdemeanors in office against the Constitution and laws of said State and the peace, dignity and interests thereof.

ARTICLE VI.

That the said William W. Holden, Governor of the State of North Carolina, heretofore, to-wit: In the months of June, July and August in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and seventy, under color of his said office unlawfully recruited, armed and equipped as soldiers a large number of men, to-wit: five hundred men and more and organized them as an army, and appointed officers to command and use such armed men as he the said William W. Holden, Governor, as aforesaid, under color of his said office, might from time to time order and direct; that during the said months of June, July and August, he the said William W. Holden, Governor, as aforesaid, under color of his office, placed a large number of said armed men under the immediate command and control of one George W. Kirk, as Colonel, aided by one B. G. Burgen, as Lieutenant Colonel, one H. C. Yates as Major and sundry other persons as Captains and Lieutenants, and sent such last mentioned armed men under the immediate commrnd of George W. Kirk as Colonel, B. G. Burgen as Lieutenant Colonel, H. C. Yates as Major and said sundry other persons as Captains and Lieutenants, in the county of Caswell, and by the procurement, order and command of him the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, under color of his said office, the said armed men last aforesaid seized, held, detained and imprisoned, in said said county of Caswell; John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jessee C. Griffith, Frank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancey, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancy Jones, J. M. Neal, William P. Bowe, Barzillia Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson and Peter H. Williamson, peaceable and law-abiding citizens of said county, then and there engaged about their lawful business; that the said John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jessee C. Griffith, Frank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancy, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancy Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillia Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson and Peter H. Williamson being so seized, held detained, and imprisoned and deprived of their liberty were then and there in the custody of the said George W. Kirk, acting as Colonel and commanding the armed body of men last aforesaid by the order command and procurement of the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, that the said John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jessee C. Griffith, Frank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womauk, A. G. Yancy, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancy Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillia Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson and Peter Williamson being so seized, held and imprisoned and deprived of their liberty, made due application to the Honorable Richmond M. Pearson, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of said State, as by law they might do, for the writ of habeas corpus, to the end that the said Chief Justite might duly enquire the cause of said seizure, detention and imprisonment and deliver them from the same, according to law. That the said Chief Justice issued the writ of habeas corpus at the instance of the said John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jessee C. Griffith, Frank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancy, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancy Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillia Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson and Peter H. Williamson, on the twenty-sixth day of July in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and seventy directed to the said George W. Kirk, commanding him forthwith to produce the bodies of the said John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jessee C. Griffith, Frank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancy, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancy Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillia Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Willionson and Peter H. Williamson, before him the said Chief Justice, at the Chamber of the Supreme Court in the city of Raleigh, in said State; that the said George W. Kirk, was on the first day of August, in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and seventy in the County of Caswell, duly served with the said writ of habeas coppus. But instead of making due return to the said writ, stated, that "I hold the said prisoners under orders from W. W. Holden, Governor and commander-in-Chief of Militia"—and refused to produce the bodies of the said John

Frakk A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancy, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancy Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillai Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson and Peter H. Williamson, before the said Chiet Justice according to the exigences of the said writ; and thereafter the said George W. Kirk continued to hold and detain and deprive of their liberty the said John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jessee C. Griffith, Frank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancy, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancey Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillai Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson, and Peter H. Williamson, for a long time, to-wit; for the space of one calendar month, the said seizure and detention of the said John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jesse C. Griffith, Frank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas G. Womack, A. G. Yancy, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancey Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillai Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson, and Peter H. Williamson, by the said George W. Kirk, and the military force under his command as aforesaid, having been made and continued as aforesaid, by the orders of the said W. W. Holden, Governor of the State aforesaid, he, the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, well knowing that the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus was not suspended, and that the said John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, Jesse C. Griffith, Fank A. Wiley, J. T. Mitchell, Thomas J. Womack, A. G. Yancey, John McKee, A. A. Mitchell, Yancey Jones, J. M. Neal, William B. Bowe, Barzillai Graves, Nathaniel M. Roane, Robert Roane, James R. Fowler, M. Z. Hooper, James C. Williamson, and Peter H. Williamson were so detained without authority of law, whereby he, the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did then and there commit high crimes and misdemeanors in office against the Constitution and laws of said State, and peace, dignity and interests thereof.

ARTICLE VII.

That the said William W. Holden, Governor of North Carolina, unmindful of his high duty to uphold and protect the Constitution and laws of said State, and the good name, dignity, and honor of the people thereof, and unmindful of the obligation of his solemn oath of office, under color of his said office, did, in the months of June, July, and August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in said State, without any authority of law, but in contravention and subversion of the Constitution and laws of said State and the United States, and intending to provoke and stir up civil strife and war, recruit and call together, from this State and the State of Tennessee, a large number of men, to-wit: five hundred men or more, many of them of the most reckless, desperate, ruffianly and lawless character, and did then and there organize, arm and equip them as an army of soldiers, and place the same under the chief command of a notorious desperado, from the State of Tennessee, by the name of George W. Kirk, having falsely proclaimed the Counties of Alamance and Caswell, in said State, in a state of insurrection, and did send large numbers of such armed, desperate men into said counties, under the immedicte command of the said George W. Kirk, and two other desperadoes from the State of Tennessee, to-wit: one B. G. Burgen and one H. C. Yates, and did then and there, without any warrant or authority, seize, hold, imprison, and deprive of their liberty, for a long time, to-wit: for the time of twenty days and more, many of the peaceable and law-abiding citizens of said counties, to-wit: John Kerr, Samuel P. Hill, —— Scott, John R. Ireland, and many others, and seize, hold, imprison, and deprive of their liberty, and hung by the neck William Patton, Lucien H. Murray, and others, and did thrust into a loathsome dungeon Josiah Turner, Junior, and F. A. Wiley.

And to maintain, support and aid the lawless armed men, so organized, armed and equiped, did, under color of his said office, from time to time, during the said months of June, July, and August, without any lawful authority, make his warrant upon David A. Jenkins, Treasurer of the State, for large sums of money, to-wit: for the sum of seventy thousand dollars and more, and cause and procure the said David A. Jenkins, the Treasurer of the State, to recognize such unlawful warrant, and pay out of the Treasury such said large sums of money to the agent or paymaster of the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, for the unlawful uses and purposes aforesaid, whereby the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, did then and there, and by the means and manner aforesaid, commit a high misdemeanor in office, in violation of the Constitution and the laws of the State, and the peace, and interests, and dignity thereof.

ARTICLE VIII.

That the said William W. Holden, Governor of the said State, unmindful of the high duties of his said office, and the obligations of his solemn oath of office, and contriving and intending and with a view and for the purpose of supporting and maintaining an armed miilitary force in said State which he had then and there recruited, organized and formed for illegal purposes without the sanction of the constitution and laws of the said State, but in contravention of the same did from time to time in the months of June, July and August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, under color of his said office, in said State without the sanction of the constitution and laws of said State, and in violation of the same, make his warrants as such Governor upon the Treasurer of the said State for large sums of money, to-wit: for the sum of eighty thousand ($80,000) dollars and more, to be used for the unlawful purposes aforesaid.

That the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, under color of his said office then and there, pursuaded, commanded, incited and procured David A. Jenkins, Treasurer of said State to recognize such and said unlawful warrants on the Treasury of said State, and to deliver such and said sums of money to such agents of the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, as he the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid might from time to time designate and appoint; that in pursuance of such warrants and orders of the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, the said David A. Jenkins, Treasurer as aforesaid delivered to one A. D. Jenkins, called the paymaster appointed by the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid for such purposes large sums of money from said Treasury, to-wit: the sum of forty thousand dollars or more; that thereafter, to-wit: in the month of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, one Richard M. Allison, a citizen of the county of Iredell, in said State brought his suit in the Superior Court of the last named county, in his own behalf and in the behalf of all the tax payers of said State, praying that a writ of injunction might then and there be granted, and issued according to law, restraining the said David A. Jenkins, Treasurer as aforesaid, from delivering any sum or sums of money to the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, or any other persons in obedience to such orders and for such purposes, and also restraining the said A. D. Jenkins, as such paymaster or in any other respect or capacity from disbursing or disposing of said sum of money, so in his said hands or any part thereof for the purposes thereof. That the Honorable Anderson Mitchell, there granted the writ of injunction so prayed for enjoining and forbidding the said David A. Jenkins, Treasurer as aforesaid from delivering any money from said Treasury in obedience to any such warrant or order, so made by the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, and enjoining and forbidding the said A. D. Jenkins as such paymaster or agent from using or disbursing the said money or any part of it so in his hands to or for the use of said armed body of men for any of the purposes aforesaid.

That the said David A. Jenkins, Treasuer, and the said A. D. Jenkins were each duly served with said writ of injunction, but nevertheless, the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, wickedly intending to suspend and subvert the laws of said State, and to defy and disregard the lawful authority of said Court, did afterwards, to-wit: after the month last aforesaid pursuade, incite, order, procure and command the said A. D. Jenkins to defy and disregard the said writ of injunction, and to deliver the said money so in his custody to another agent of the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, to be used for the unlawful purposes aforesaid. That the said A. D. Jenkins, in obedience to such last mentioned order, command and procurement of the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, and in disregard of such writ of injunction and the lawful authority of said Judge, did deliver the said money so in his hands to another agent of the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, to wit: to one Richard T. Berry, to be used for the unlawful purpose aforesaid, and the said William W. Holden, Governar as aforesaid, did then and there, in the way and manner, and by the means and for the purpose aforesaid, procure, order and command the said A. D. Jenkins so to disregard and disobey the said writ of injunction, and the lawful authority of said Judge, and did then and there, and in the way and manner, and by the means and for the unlawful purpose aforesaid defy, disregard, ignore, contravene, suspend and defeat the lawful purposes and effect of the writ of injunction so granted and issued by the said Judge. And thereupon and thereafter the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, the said sum of public money, thus transferred as aforesaid to the hands of the said Richard T. Berry, did order and cause to be paid out and disbursed by him, the said Richard T. Berry, to, for and about the illegal purposes aforesaid, to-wit: the payment of the expenses in keeping on foot, sustaining and maintaining the said illegal military force as aforesaid. Whereby the said William W. Holden, Governor as aforesaid, was then and there guilty of a high misdemeanor in his said office, in violation of his oath of office and in subversion of the laws of said State, and the peace, interests and dignity thereof.

Tuesday Evening Dispatches

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The House was occupied in personal explanations.

In the Senate the Finance Committee reported in favor of 500,000,000 additional 5 per cent bonds and adversely to the proposition making the issue of gold notes of Banks receivable for customs.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The strike on the Erie Railroad is virtually over and freight is coming forward regularly.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20.—J. T. Jewett has been appointed Drake's successor.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—A Berlin special says, the conference of the representatives of the neutral powers have agreed to the following peace basis: First, requires the annexation of Luxemburg; 2nd, the recognition of the German Empire; 3rd, indemnity from France to Germany of twelve hundred million francs; raising two German fortresses on the German frontier, and the cession of a portion of Alsace.

The "Telegraph" has a special from Brussels saying that the late heavy calls for the landweks denotes weakness in the beseiger's forces, and that their operations are more of the defensive than offensive. One or two sorties like that of last night and the siege of Paris will be raised.

Dispatches from Frankfort say that a month will be required before the bombardment can possibly begin. The German guns before Paris are worthless for such purposes as long as Versailles, itself, is nearly within range of the French guns,

Later advices from Paris say there has been no fighting around the city since the 1st of December. Prince William of Baden, was wounded in the capture of Nuis.

BORDEAUX, Dec. 19.—The government has announced that the enemy has discontinued his advance on Havre. The Prussians 21,000 strong with eleven batteries attacked Nuis and captured it, after five hours fight and heavy loss. It is expected the battle will be renewed to-day. The Prussians attacked [illegible] but were easily repulsed. The enemy falls back as Bourbaki advances. The French have reoccupied Vierson.

Advices from Paris up to the 17th states that the city is calm and the people confident. There is food for a long time. The army and people are eager for the fight. The government have dispatches from Gambetta up to the 12th inst.

BERLIN, Dec. 20.—The Cross Gazette reiterates that the difficulties in transporting materials and heavy guns will soon be overcome, and that further action regarding the bombardment of Paris will be guided entirely by military considerations.

MARKETS.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Consols 91¼, 62s 88¼.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 20.—Cotton market opened steady, Uplands 8¼, Orleans 8½, sales 12,000 bales.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Flour dull and drooping; wheat dull and heavy; corn quiet, pork dull, old mess 19½; lard dull at 12¼; cotton in good demand and higher, Uplands 15⅜, Orleans 16, sales 3000 bales; spirits turpentine dull at 46; rosin firm at $2 10 for strained.

Stocks quiet; Gold 10⅝ to 10¾; Money easy at 7 currency to gold; Exchange, long 8⅛, short 9¾; Bonds 7⅛.

Tuesday Night Dispatches.

TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES.—We are forced to omit our last night's telegrams and give only a short synopsis. In the lower House of Congress, amnesty was discussed but no vote had. The vote on the amendments will be taken to-day.

The sugar tariff and San Domingo resolutions were discussed and Sumner and Morton came near having a collision.

The foreign news is totally without interest. Cotton is quoted weak at 15½ in New York. Others unchanged except wheat, which is one cent lower.

The French suffered considerable loss at Nuis and at Forsley and Fonteule on Monday.

Married.

On Tuesday evening the 20th inst., at the office of the Register of Deeds in the city of Raleigh, by Wesley Whitaker, Esq., Mr. Jas. H. Poole, to Miss Sarah A. Wall.

DIED.

At his residence in Rockingham County, N. C., on the 18th inst., ROBERT H. COURTS, in the 81st year of his age.

My acquaintance with the deceased began in 1843, and continued up to the time of his death, and I can conscientiously say, that during this period, I have rarely, if ever seen embodied in any individual in so marked a degree, the traits of simplicity, kindness, patriotism, honesty, truth, piety and the most remarkable and unbounded charity. In him the widow found a husband, the orphan a father; and no alms seeker was ever turned empty away.

He had been a member of the Baptist Church for over fifty years and died in the full assurance of a happy life in that bright world "where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest."

WHAT THE CITY PRESS SAY:

Prize Drawing.—Quite a crowd assembled at the Theatre yesterday noon, to witness the Grand Drawing of the North Carolina Beneficial Association. There were 100 prizes in all, and little rolls of paper separating these were placed in a wheel on one side, while the tickets were in another wheel opposite to the former. Between the two was a table, at which sat the Judges and Mr. John London, Commissioner. The wheels were made with lass sides, so that everything within them ould be seen and were securely locked, until he drawing began. This was done by means of two little boys, who were securely blindfolded, one drawing a number from one of the wheels and the other the prize to correspond with it. There is no question but that the drawing was done in a perfectly fair and just manner.—Wilmington Daily Journal, Dec. 2nd.

The Grand Drawing Yesterday.—The grand single number distribution of the N. C. Beneficial Association, which took place at the Theatre yesterday, at 1 o'clock, was the all-absorbing theme during the day. The drawing took place in public, a committee having been selected from the audience to act with the Commissioner in keeping an account of the same and to see that it was conducted fairly. Quite a respectable crowd was present to witness the drawing. The following numbers drew the principal prizes: No. 4819, $5,000; No. 6006, $2,500; No. 5776, $2,500; No. 2842, $2,000; No. 1407, $2,000; No. 4412, $1,000; No. 1486, $500. The Certificate No. 1407 was sold to a citizen of Wilmington, N. C.—Wilmington Morning Star, Dec. 2nd.

LIFE INSURANCE AS AN INVESTMENT.

THE

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

BENEFIT LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF NEW YORK.

Cash Assets over $1,500,000,

ISSUES ALL FORMS OF NON FORFEITABLE, WHOLE LIFE, AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES, on the Mutual Cash Plan, declaring dividends annually after the first annual premium paid. Assets exclusively Cash, with no portion of its reserve fund in premium notes, consequently its "reserve" is stronger than that of any company doing business in this State. No "definite surrender values guaranteed" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount paid on each surrendered policy, as shown by the New York Insurance Reports, 1869, as evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a minimum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred out of several hundred policy holders in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company to pay larger dividends than companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Fictitious Dividends" are not declared, but dividends are given from the actual surplus, in accordance with the Company's charter. The attention of the public is invited to the following comparison of cost, demonstrating the advantages over ordinary insurances, of the

TONTINE DIVIDEND PLAN:

Ordinary Life Policy, Tontine Dividend Plan. Age 38, amount $10,000, 10 years in force. Annual Premium $291.50.	Ordinary Life Policy, Mutual Plan Cash Co. Age 38, amount $10,000, 10 years in force. Annual Premium $291.50	Ordinary Life Policy "Stock" Company. Age 38, amount $10,000, 10 years in force. Annual Premium $216.00
Tontine Dividend paid in cash at end of 10 y'rs $2,769.25 Prem's pd in 10 years 2,915.00	Prem's pd in 10 y'rs $2,915.00 Less cash dividends received annually, 1,182.81	Prem's pd in 10 years $2,160.00 Dividends nothing
Nett cost of insurance $145.75	Nett cost of insurance $1,732.16	Nett cost of ins. $2,160.00

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks, upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its Cash assets are upwards of $13,000,000.00, and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of Promissory Notes, as in many Companies.
3. Its Cash Income per annum is over $6,500,000.00, and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes of hand of policy holders, as is the case in many Companies.
5. It has paid to Widows and Orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4,000,000.00.
6. Such payments are made in Cash, and not partly in Cancelled Notes, as is the case in many Companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a Policy, for Premium Notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000.00, and upwards, in cash divided among Policy Holders, (this included the dividend for the present year,) as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the assured Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the Stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available, as cash in payment of Premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start, and not postponed until the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals Equitably with its policy holders.
13. The Equitable has made More progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the World.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected, and its dealings so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. Its modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other Company in the World.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment Policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year, ending December 1, 1869, was $51,021,041.
18. Its Policies average larger in amount than those of any other Company, showing that Capitalists select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many Companies.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with the safety of the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business, as is the case with many new Companies.
21. It is the favorite Company in the United States, as is shown by its new business last year, being nearer $13,000,000 greater than any other Company.
